Tasting note

Strawberries and blueberries lead the aromas, followed by juicy raspberry and a tart cranberry edge on the palate. Light in body and dry, with lively acidity that keeps the fruit fresh and the finish refreshing. An easygoing rosé with plenty of flavour to enjoy well chilled.

The producer

Philip and Elvira Cox have helped transform Cramele Recaș into one of Romania's leading wine producers. Investment in its vineyards and modern cellar underpins a broad range of accessible, fruit-driven wines. The Călușari range captures that approach, with clear varietal character and a focus on everyday value.

Winemaking

Estate-grown Pinot Noir is picked early in the morning to preserve its fruit and acidity. The grapes are destemmed, crushed and chilled, with brief skin contact to draw out colour. Gentle pressing is followed by fermentation at controlled temperatures, without oak ageing, keeping the style fresh and fruity.

Food pairing

Greek salad, grilled fish or barbecued chicken. Serve well chilled with relaxed lunches and summer suppers.
