Tasting note

Ripe pear and white peach meet bright citrus, delicate blossom and a subtle almond note. The palate has a pleasing rounded texture, balanced by fresh acidity and a clean, dry finish. An approachable white with enough character for seafood, creamy pasta or a relaxed aperitif.

The producer

Led by Stefano Girelli, The Wine People works across Italy, bringing regional grape varieties to a wider audience. From its base in Trentino, the team oversees wines from regions including Sicily, Puglia and Abruzzo. DeNatile is part of this range, combining local character with an approachable style.

Winemaking

After gentle pressing, the juice is fermented at cool temperatures in stainless steel to preserve Fiano's floral aromas and fresh fruit. The wine is made without oak, allowing its citrus and stone-fruit flavours to come through clearly while retaining the grape's naturally rounded texture.

Food pairing

Grilled fish, lemon chicken, creamy seafood pasta or burrata with tomatoes.
