Tasting note

Raspberry and blackberry aromas lead into a fresh, rounded palate with delicate, well-integrated tannins. Subtle wood spice adds depth without overwhelming the fruit. Supple and inviting, with a lingering spicy finish, this is a versatile red Burgundy for the table.

The producer

Founded in Rully in the early twentieth century, Domaine Belleville focuses on individual vineyard sites across Burgundy. Its established estate vineyards have been certified organic since the 2021 vintage, with careful farming and restrained oak use helping each site retain its character.

Winemaking

Champ Ladoy draws on two parcels, one facing north and the other east. They are harvested at different times to balance ripeness and freshness. The Pinot Noir matures for 12 months in oak, including 30% new barrels, adding gentle spice and structure to the fruit.

Food pairing

Roast duck, pork tenderloin, mushroom risotto or soft cheeses.
