Tasting note

Peach, lemon and white flowers meet gentle vanilla and white pepper. Rounded and textured, with fresh acidity and a chalky finish, it has the richness to complement creamy dishes.

The producer

Jérôme Billard has led this family estate in La Rochepot since 1999. His son Louis is continuing the tradition after working in South Africa, Australia and at Domaine de la Romanée-Conti.

Winemaking

Chardonnay grows on the chalky, well-drained La Justice hillside. Handpicked grapes are sorted before barrel fermentation. Lees ageing adds texture, with subtle oak supporting the fruit.

Food pairing

Roast chicken, creamy mushroom pasta, fish in beurre blanc or Comté.
