Tasting note

Peach, nectarine and apple meet bright lemon and lime, with floral hints and a little tropical fruit. The dry palate is fresh and lively, yet has generous fruit and a pleasing weight. Citrus acidity runs through the wine, giving it a long, zesty finish and plenty of food appeal.

The producer

Founded by the Jeanneret family in 1992, this Clare Valley winery is led by self-taught winemaker Ben Jeanneret. What began as a passion for making wine to share became a family business. Today, the team makes and bottles its wines at Sevenhill, working with longstanding local growers.

Winemaking

Fruit comes from Watervale, Sevenhill, Auburn and Stanley Flat, at elevations of 300–510 metres. Harvest runs from mid-March into early April. Fermentation takes 12–29 days at cool temperatures, followed by 40–70 days on the lees. This time on lees helps build the wine's generous texture.

Food pairing

Oysters, salmon, sashimi, chicken or citrus-dressed salads. Also excellent with fish and chips or ceviche.
