Tasting note

Red cherry and raspberry aromas are lifted by floral notes, gentle spice and a hint of woodland earth. The palate is light and juicy, with fine, silky tannins. Fresh acidity gives the wine energy and length, making it an appealing red for lighter dishes.

The producer

Pierre Caizergues and Antonin Bonnet share roots in the Languedoc and met in New York in 2010. They launched Pierre & Antonin in 2020, bringing an independent, creative approach to wines from southern France. This Pinot Noir comes from the Cité de Carcassonne area.

Winemaking

Pinot Noir is sourced from elevated vineyards around Carcassonne. Traditional red-wine vinification is followed by maturation in stainless steel. The resulting style emphasises fresh fruit and supple tannins, without an overt oak character.

Food pairing

Roast chicken, seared tuna, mushroom pasta or pork tenderloin.
